IN THE NEWS

It's hard to believe, but it is May and that means that Camp Saint Andrew's 2010 is three (3) months away. The dates this year are July 31 for Staff and August 1 for campers through August 7. Scarf/Camp Sunday is August 8.

Our theme this year is AGE of MYTHOLOGY. Think about Poseidon the god of the Oceans; Zeus the god of Sky; Hades the god of the underworld; Aphrodite, goddess of beauty; Apollo and his twin sister Artemis; Athena; Hestia; Hera and...

The Camp Commission is meeting at least monthly and emails, text messages and even phone calls are sent on a daily basis. Mandy Manousos has a tentative daily schedule and Andy McClelland is working on music. Lots of Scarf conversations have taken place. Who knows what Jason Hazzick is doing. Our fishermen are looking for another boat, the Chaplain is planning awesome chapels and, well you get the idea. All we need is you!!

Second verse, same as the first, a little bit better and a little bit worse!

Campers and Staff: have your applications been submitted yet? Remember, there is a limit that we can pack into Camp Oski. So get to it! You will feel better and so will we!!

Kim Taylor was on the Price is Right and won the big prize. Kim is our second staffer to be on the show. Mandy Manousos is engaged to boyfriend, Mike so now he is husband-to-be, Mike. Matt Fitts is engaged to his Robin as of a April weekend. Eric Solberg and Dina Lichtenstein will be married on May 15. Don and Penny Carr and Sue Ramar and Steve Kottmeier are on a Cursillo team on May 14—16. Cara Maffini is home from India (as Andrew Bate calls it). Good news: Missy Carr Rietfors and Ashley LaFountain will be back this year. Bad news: Caitlin Cameron, Bailey Disher, Michaela Rogers have told us, not this year. I know there is much more, but I only print what I have been personally told. So, go to FB or give me a shout.
